FOREST FIRES ARE STILL BURNING UNCHECKED

charge of the reserves in Montana and Idaho, through which fires are now raging, says the general situation is much improved.

The locality that is causing the greatest uneasiness is in the Coeur d'Alene reserve, where no attempt to fight the flames is being made, all energy being centered in relief work.

Mr. Greeley has issued instructions to all of his men to send a searching party for every camper, prospector or homesteader of whom they have any record.

Fire Under Control.
Chico, Calif., Aug. 25.—After strenuous work of citizens the Magalla ridge forest fire, which threatened yesterday to sweep away the village of Magalla and adjacent mining works, has been brought under control.

Only a "Small" Blaze.
Vancouver, Wash., Aug. 25.—A gale blowing from the west for 20 miles an hour has fanned a multitude of brush and incipient timber fires between here and Stevenson into a fury.

The damage to sawmill property is alone over $100,000, while the loss to Colorado may run over $500,000 and perhaps double that sum.

In the neighborhood of Yaocot a fire has got into the big timber and is raging along at a terrific rate.

People from the country districts tributary to Vancouver, Camas and Washouah are leaving their homes.

Smoke Rolls Over Colorado.
Denver, Colo., Aug. 25.—A blanket of smoke 3000 feet thick has drifted over Colorado from the forest fires 800 miles away. The entire northwest portion of the state is covered by the pall which is drifting southeast at the rate of 40 miles an hour. The plains are enshrouded and for 50 miles up the narrow canyons it is impossible to see from wall to wall. At Denver, approximately a mile above sea level, the smoke at least as a thin fog, but increases in density until at 6000 and 7000 foot altitudes among the mountains it is impenetrable for any distance.

Tahoe Fire Is Out.
Auburn, Calif., Aug. 25.—The forest fire in Tahoe national forest is declared to be under control. All danger to the mines and sawmills is said to be past.
A detachment of 150 soldiers has arrived and the fire fighters expect soon to have the burning section completely surrounded.
